ANNIE

I met Ezekiel Young from Salt
Lake City about two years ago and he told me he was single and we hit it off right away.

So, we started living together.

He'd go to work. He'd come home. I'd mix him a drink.

We'd have dinner. Well, it was like heaven in two and a half rooms. And then I found out.

"Single?" he told me. Single, my foot. Not only was he married.

Oh no! He had six wives. One of those Mormons, you know. So that night, when he came home,

I mixed him his drink as usual.

You know, some guys just can't hold their arsenic.

My sister, Veronica and I did this double act and my husband, Charlie, traveled around with us. Now, for the last number in our act, we did these twenty acrobatic tricks in a row—one, two, three, four, five—splits, spread eagles, flip-flops, back flips, one right after the other. Well this one night we were in Cicero, the three of us, sittin' up in a hotel room, havin' a few laughs and we ran out of ice, so I went out to get some. I come back, open the door and there's Veronica and Charlie doing
